

Spanish to Move® offers a wide range of editorial services for clients such as writers, researchers, publishers, businesses, and any other individual or organization in need of high-quality communication solutions in Spanish.

Coaching/Consultancy

We provide expertise to help you solve your communication needs in Spanish, regardless of whether you are a writer, a publisher, a governmental agent, or a business person trying to convey a message in Spanish for your audience.

Project management

We help you manage every step in the publishing process and oversee all the activities and functions involved in transitioning a manuscript into a printed/electronic version for the consumption of your readers.

Writing (content creation in Spanish)

We help you identify and generate topic ideas that appeal to your customers or readers; we create written or visual content around those ideas, and make that information accessible to your audience in multiple formats.

Translation (English to Spanish)

We provide high-quality English to Spanish translation targeted towards your Hispanic market.

Formatting

We prepare your manuscript, set up a particular style, and deliver a clean, logically laid out, and easy-to-read document ready for uploading to a self-publishing platform.

Copyediting

We help you ensure that every element of your story is consistent, cohesive, and complete. We also correct spelling, grammar, usage, and punctuation, and ensure accuracy of texts.

Design/Layout

We offer editorial design services, such as the layout of publications (print and electronic), covers, and customized design solutions (magazines, books, e-books, brochures, press releases, etc.).

Proofreading

We check texts for any remaining errors, including typographical errors and problems with formatting, before publishing.

Book publication on Amazon

We take care of every process involved in the publication of your book/e-book on Amazon: formatting and layout, cover design, creation of files needed to publish your book, keyword research, and optimization of Amazon listing.

Marketing/Promotion on Amazon

We offer a full range of services to help you become a published author: formatting, publication on Amazon (paperback and e-book), keyword research, optimization of Amazon listing (landing page), and marketing on Amazon to increase exposure and sales.

Spanish website localization

We adapt your website to the Spanish dialect and culture of your target market and create texts that are linguistically and culturally appropriate for your Spanish-speaking audience.

Keyword research for SEO & campaigns

We produce SEO content optimized for search engines to increase visits to your website and find keywords in Spanish that you want to rank for in search engines or promote through paid distribution channels.
